

Privacy Policy

Last updated: December 10, 2025

We value your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal data. This policy explains how we collect, use, and manage your information in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Data Collection

We collect personal data that you provide directly to us, such as your name, email address, and any other information you submit through our website forms.

Use of Data

Your data is used to:

- Provide access to our services and content.
- Improve our website and personalise your experience.
- Comply with legal obligations.

Data Sharing

We do not sell or share your personal data with third parties, except:

- With service providers who assist us in running our website and services.
- When required by law or to protect our rights.

Data Security

We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your data from unauthorized access, alteration, or disclosure.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Access, correct, or delete your personal data.
- Withdraw consent at any time.
- Object to the processing of your data or request data portability.
- Complain with a supervisory authority if you believe your data is not being handled properly.

Data Retention

We retain your personal data only as long as necessary for the purposes outlined in this policy or as required by law.
